Twin Peaks is on the Lookout for Talent in Madison Heights

Ultimate man-cave recruits "Lumber-Jills" for first Michigan outpost

DALLAS, TX (January 19, 2015) – Twin Peaks, the ultimate sports lodge, is busting out its first Michigan location in Madison Heights, located at 1111 W. 14 Mile Rd. To outfit the new location, the concept is currently holding auditions for over 90 enthusiastic and friendly ladies to join the team as Twin Peaks Girls.

Becoming a Twin Peaks Girl comes with perks such as flexible hours to accommodate school schedules, prepaid tanning and fitness packages, and a fun work environment with great tips and contests to win shopping sprees and vacations. Twin Peaks Girls also wear the pro-cheerleader-inspired "Lumber-Jill" costumes and have the chance to star in national modeling opportunities.

"Twin Peaks is known across the country for its great food and hospitable service and that's thanks to the Twin Peaks Girls," said Kristen Colby, Twin Peaks' Senior Director of Marketing. "Their confidence and friendly personalities are what set us apart from other sports restaurants and it's important to have the best possible talent representing us."

Twin Peaks Madison Heights will feature 58 high-definition flat screen TVs and a large outdoor patio. The made-from-scratch menu features hearty American favorites and includes 24 draft beers served at a freezing 29-degrees from a full-service bar.

"The Twin Peaks Girls are our signature assets and we can't wait to get started with auditions in Madison Heights and welcome a new group of girls to the team," added Colby.

To try out, potential Twin Peaks Girls are invited to stop by Twin Peaks Madison Heights from 9:00am to 8:00pm, Sunday through Saturday. Auditions will be held up until the time of opening.

Prospective applicants should arrive dressed to impress as positions are in high demand. No previous restaurant experience is required.

Applications are also being accepted for 50 kitchen and staff positions.
