Twin Peaks is on the Lookout for Talent in Kennesaw

Ultimate man-cave recruits “Lumber-Jills” for outpost in Georgia

DALLAS (September 16th, 2014) – Twin Peaks, the ultimate sports lodge, is opening a store in Kennesaw Georgia, located at 2475 George Busbee Parkway. To outfit the new location, the concept is currently holding auditions for 125 enthusiastic and friendly ladies to join the team as Twin Peaks Girls.

Becoming a Twin Peaks Girl comes with perks such as flexible hours to accommodate school schedules, prepaid tanning and fitness packages, and a fun work environment with great tips and contests to win shopping sprees and vacations. Twin Peaks Girls also wear the pro-cheerleader-inspired “Lumber-Jill” costumes and have the chance to star in national modeling opportunities.

“Twin Peaks is known across the country for its great food and hospitable service and that’s thanks to the Twin Peaks Girls,” said Kristen Colby, Twin Peaks’ Senior Director of Marketing. “Their confidence and friendly personalities are what set us apart from other sports restaurants and it’s important to have the best possible talent representing us.”

Twin Peaks Kennesaw will feature over 70 high-definition flat screen TVs, an enclosed patio and an outdoor fire place. The made-from-scratch menu features hearty American favorites and includes 32 draft beers served at a freezing, 29-degrees from a full-service bar.

“The Twin Peaks Girls are our signature assets and we can’t wait to get started with auditions in Georgia and welcome a new group of girls to the team,” added Colby.

To try out, potential Twin Peaks Girls are invited to stop by Twin Peaks Kennesaw from 9:00am to 8:00pm, Monday – Sunday. Prospective applicants should arrive dressed to impress as positions are in high demand. No previous restaurant experience is required. Auditions will be held up until the time of opening.

Applications are also being accepted for 75 kitchen and staff positions. For more information, call (678) 348-1605.
