WEST PALM BEACH TWIN PEAKS RESTAURANT OPENS TODAY

WEST PALM BEACH, FL (March 14, 2016)– Twin Peaks, known for made-from-scratch food, ultimate sports lodge atmosphere, and the coldest beer served anywhere, unveils its newest restaurant at 5 p.m. today at 2224 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd.

A perfect spot to enjoy March Madness, the 11,000 square foot restaurant features over 70 high-definition flat screen TVs, an open air covered patio, and a huge selection of ice cold beer and spirits. The restaurant's friendly female servers offer a variety of made from scratch American comfort food and tasty, shareable favorites. Guests can choose from such freshly-made specialties as slow-cooked Mom's Pot Roast and house-breaded Chicken Fried Steak. Other sports lodge signatures include The Hangover Burger, and delicious sliders such as the Buttermilk Chicken Sliders.

A wide selection of ice-cold drafts is available on tap from Twin Peaks' patented beer dispensing system that pours beer at 29 degrees - the lowest possible temperature before freezing - creating an icy, refreshing head experience. Twin Peaks also has a wide selection of craft beers and a full bar featuring top-shelf and signature bourbons and spirits. A dedicated 'man cave' room is perfect for private parties.

Owned by DMD Restaurant Group, Twin Peaks West Palm Beach has created about 175 new jobs in the area.

"We're thrilled to serve the West Palm Beach community and are looking forward to sharing the excitement of March Madness with guests," said Dave Flowers, General Manager of the restaurant. "We've been working very hard to hire an engaging and talented team to serve up the delicious, made-to-order foods and ice-cold beers and drinks we're famous for."

West Palm Beach is the third Twin Peaks sport lodge to open in south Florida, with restaurants now operating in Davie and Fort Myers. For more information, call: (561) 508-9490, or visit: www.facebook.com/TwinPeaksWestPalmBeach.
